ATLANTA, GA., May 28.—The game between Atlanta and Augusta to-day was witnessed by a large crowd, and was hotly contested throughout.

Atlanta played in hard luck, and would have won the game if they could have bunched their hits at the right time.

In the ninth inning the score stood 5 to 3 against Atlanta and with three men on bases and two men out, Cline at the bat. It seemed certain Atlanta would catch them. Cline took first on balls, force Stricker home. Lyons, our sure hitter, hit a pop fly to short stop and ended the game. The excitement at this time was intense, everybody standing, ladies included. Score by innings:

Atlanta...0 0 0 1 0 2 0 0 1 4
